Subject Matter Expertise

As your brand grows, the problems that need solving tend to grow with it.

At Detpak, our subject matter experts are here to provide bespoke solutions tailored to your business needs and guide you through the complexities of packaging legislation.

When you partner with Detpak, we'll manage your packaging, allowing you to focus on growing your brand.

Detpak and the Detmold Group are proud members of the Australian Packaging Covenant Organisation (APCO), guiding sustainable packaging decisions for now and into the future.

Supply Chain Strength

The bigger your business gets, the bigger the disruption when something unexpected occurs.

That's why we've strategically developed a global production network, with Australian-owned manufacturing sites in seven countries and a dedicated Global Sourcing Team. We implement robust supply contingency plans for every product category, ensuring reliability at every step.

When you partner with Detpak, you can rest assured that your packaging will be delivered on time and in full.

We understand how important differentiation is across every aspect of your business.

That's why we have Launchpad™, our specialist, in-house packaging design agency, and the LaunchPad™ Lab, to drive innovation and growth exclusively for our customers, through bespoke design, materials science, cost engineering, and sustainability.
